

“Become a Person of Influence”

If you find yourself getting stuck and procrastinating or not communicating effectively or achieving the goals that you set, this is a meeting you do not want to miss.

Kenyon Curtis

The best is yet to come...

Kenyon Curtis with a background in sales and business and most recently a student of Michael Bernoff and Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) has risen quickly in skills and ability under Michael’s tutelage. Michael is the real wizard in helping people to really understand themselves and communicate powerfully and influentially with themselves and others and now Kenyon is helping to share that message.

Whether you’re looking for a way to become more consistent in health, business or relationships or like many of Michael’s executive clients who are looking to get to the next level Michael teaches simple but explosive strategies to reach within yourself and to finally realize what it takes for you to get yourself to do what you already know how to do.

Kenyon has worked in real estate for 9 years as a loan officer, ran a small business in commercial property services and most recently was the regional top producer for a direct sales company.

He has learned that with the greater communication skills he learned from Michael there is a better, faster, easier way to grow your business, improve your relationships, health and other areas of your life.
